TECHNICAL SUMMARY

INTRODUCTION

The Soccer Nova Scotia 2017-2021 Strategic Direction is an important benchmark that provides direction and focus for soccer development in Nova Scotia.

Soccer Nova Scotia's strategic direction sets the vision and clarity for developing soccer in Nova Scotia, while the technical plan will provide the pathway and tactics required to help achieve these strategic priorities.

This technical plan is designed as a primary action plan for staff and key stakeholders responsible for delivering soccer over several layers of development throughout the province. Stemming from Soccer Nova Scotia's strategic priorities Organizational Leadership, Developing the Game and Partnership and Engagement, the technical plan is built on six pillars:

- AFFORDABILITY
- GRASSROOTS
- LEADERSHIP
- MEMBERSHIP EDUCATION
- COACH EDUCATION
- HIGH PERFORMANCE

While the technical plan specifically targets staff and key stakeholders, it also has relevance to the wider soccer community. This document will be of interest and provide guidance to the many organizations and individuals that operate in the soccer community including: National Sport Organizations (NSO), Regional Sports Organizations (RSOs), professional partners (Vancouver Whitecaps), clubs, leagues and the numerous community sport coaches who give their time to make soccer in Nova Scotia a fun and enjoyable experience.

TECHNICAL DEPARTMENT

Soccer Nova Scotia's technical department is made up of three full-time staff who are responsible for managing and supporting leaders in the soccer community to achieve provincial, regional and club objectives. With the support of six regional technical directors, Soccer Nova Scotia is able to service communities across Nova Scotia to grow the game.

Mike Whyatt

Director of Soccer Development

Whyatt will be responsible for overseeing the technical department at Soccer Nova Scotia including support for the grassroots development officer, high performance manager and the regional technical directors located across Nova Scotia. He is also responsible for representing Nova Scotia at a national level sitting on the Canada Soccer technical committee.

Matt Holton

Grassroots & Community Development Officer

Holton will be responsible for managing the upcoming Club Licensing program as well as creating, executing and evaluating curriculum and programs to ensure the Long Term Player Development (LTPD) model is being implemented throughout Nova Scotia. He will also work closely with leagues throughout the province, implementing and supporting standards to serve the members.

TBC

High Performance Manager

The High Performance Manager will oversee the EXCEL programs REX (Female) & Whitecaps Residency Prospects (Male) & Provincial program. In addition, the role will work towards building a Nova Scotia Player Development Program (PDP) with Canada Soccer.
