Operational Procedures

Revised Edition May 1, 2018

OVERVIEW

1. INTRODUCTION

This section provides an informal overview of Soccer Nova Scotia (SNS) – how it is organized, governed, who are its members, what are its programs. Where applicable, any topic that exists in the official bylaws or policies, which defines each in more detail, will be italicized (e.g. Players). You should be able to locate such topics in the table of contents of the Bylaws or Policies and Procedures.

Soccer Nova Scotia also maintains other documents that provide additional program details, rules, or procedures. These are available through the Soccer Nova Scotia website.

2. ORGANIZATION WITHIN NOVA SCOTIA

Soccer Nova is responsible for organizing soccer activities for all its members. Activities include competitions, training, and general administration.

‘Official’ Member organizations of Soccer Nova Scotia include Districts, Leagues, Associates, Referee Associations, and Life members, as defined in the SNS bylaws. Districts and Leagues include another level of organization membership – Clubs.

Players are the ‘foundation’ membership units in soccer. Players register with Clubs, and as such, have the right to participate in competitions and training activities. Club membership automatically includes membership in all other member organizations of the Club, including Districts, Leagues, and Soccer Nova Scotia. Membership includes the obligation and acknowledgment for an individual to adhere to all bylaws, policies and procedures of all these organizations.

Clubs are the ‘grass root’ organization for registration of and program delivery to Players. Clubs form Club Teams and manage all team related activities including selection, registration, training, and coach selection. Clubs may also organize non-team related training or activities for its members. Clubs are members of Districts and Leagues. Clubs register players, and where applicable, assign players to registered teams.

Districts serve as the representative for its member Clubs and their players on Soccer Nova Scotia governing bodies. Districts may also be members of Inter-District Leagues, and as such serve the interests of their members on that League.

Leagues organize seasonal league play for its member District or Club teams. This includes creating divisions, schedules, and where applicable publishing standings and statistics

3. ORGANIZATION OUTSIDE NOVA SCOTIA

Soccer Nova Scotia, as the recognized governing body of soccer in the province, is a member of the larger national governing association, the “Canadian Soccer Association” (CSA). As a member of the CSA, our President sits on the CSA Board and our Competitions Committee chair sits on the national Competitions Committee. From time to time other Soccer Nova Scotia representatives serve on other CSA committees. Our affiliation with the CSA also includes involvement in training through a National Training Centre located in Halifax, Nova Scotia at the SNS Indoor Training Facility.

The CSA is in turn part of an international soccer organization network through a confederation known as the “Confederation of North, Central American and Caribbean Association Football” (CONCACAF). The CONCACAF has 29 national associations in its membership.

This confederation, along with five others, makes up the world governing body of soccer known as “Federation Internationale de Football Associations” (FIFA).

As a member of these higher organizations, Soccer Nova Scotia is subject to the rules, decisions and government of each. The strength of this network includes delivery of standardized rules of play, discipline and appeals hierarchy, and participation in national and international competitions.

4. DECISION-MAKING LEVELS WITHIN SOCCER NOVA SCOTIA

Within Soccer Nova Scotia, operational decisions are made by staff and operational committees composed of paid staff and member representatives. All other decision-making is done by the Board of Directors and Board Committees

The Membership is the top decision-making body. The Membership meets at least once per annum at its Annual General Meeting. When necessary, a Special General Meeting of the Membership may be held. Responsibilities of the Membership are outlined in the Bylaws. The Membership elects the Board of Directors.

The Board of Directors consists of elected Soccer Nova Scotia officers that meet the competencies within the Governance Polices. The powers of the Board of Directors are vested to direct the affairs of Soccer Nova Scotia as outlined in the Bylaws.
